

U.S. History

Win-Win Agreement

“History will be kind to me; for I intend to write it.”

Winston Churchill

What is History? How do you feel about the United States? Are we a country of liberty, equality and justice; or are we viewed in a negative connotation? History is one discipline, which can be viewed through multiple lenses. Throughout this year, you will accomplish such. Our focus is to understand U.S. History through the lenses of historians; not our parents or friends. We need to be unbiased when looking out the founding of this country. Students will study historical documents from the Declaration of Independence to the Constitution and determine for themselves what the “true history” of the U.S.A. is.
